The examining veterinarian decides on the sequence of the examinations and reserves the right to, if necessary, sedate the horse and to take off horseshoes. Furthermore, he/she decides in case of absence of the client, if the examination will be discontinued in the event of a medical finding or not. Travel expenses and visitation costs are added separately. I hereby certify that all my information is correct and agree to the terms and conditions. The parties agree to the international jurisdiction of the German courts and the applicability of German law. The place of jurisdiction is Augsburg.
